

WORKSHOP

ORAL AND VISUAL MEMORIES OF MIGRATION: INTERDISCIPLINARY RESPONSES AND APPROACHES TO THE BODIES ACROSS BORDERS IN EUROPE PROJECT

University of Utrecht
Thursday 19 and Friday 20 October 2017

The BABE research team is glad to announce a workshop with Utrecht University through CCHR (research focus area Cultures, Citizenship and Human Rights). The workshop is envisioned as an institutional event (with the University) and an involvement with the city of Utrecht. It includes a session devoted to a conversation with Maria Hlavajova, director of BAK, Basis Voor Actuele Kunst.

Scholars and artists/curators affiliated with Utrecht University who specialize in issues of migration, memory and visuality in relation to Europe are invited to present responses and reflections from their field of expertise on the aims and results of the BABE project.

Programme

Thursday 19 October

Location: Drift 21, Sweelinckzaal

9:00-11:00

Opening words and welcome by Rosemarie Buikema

Introduction by Luisa Passerini with Milica Trakilovic: Studying Migration in Europe through the Context of Italy and the Netherlands

Talk by Ann Rigney (Utrecht University), drawing on some themes/results from the BABE project. Title: Bodies that (don't) Matter: Memory and Affiliation.

Discussion and Q&A

11:00-12:00 Lunch, provided by CCHR

12:00-15:00

Art, visuality (and memory)

Iris van Huis (Babe, EUI) , Leslie Hernandez Nova (Babe, EUI),
Rosemarie Buikema (Utrecht University)

Europe, postcoloniality (and memory)

Milica Trakilović (Babe, EUI), Gabriele Proglío (Babe, EUI), Milena Marchesi
(Radboud University, Nijmegen).

Reflections and closing statements, during which both panels present their findings (14:45-15:00)

Friday 20 October

Location: Muntstraat 2a, room 1.11

09:30-12:30

Relationships between Visuality/Art and the Socio-Historical Disciplines: a conversation with Maria Hlavajova director of BAK, Basis Voor Actuele Kunst.

09:30 – 10:00 Opening by Luisa Passerini (Babe, EUI)

10:00 – 10:30 Brief reaction by Maria Hlavajova and open discussion

10:30 – 10:45 Coffee and tea break

10:45 – 11:15 Liliana Ellena (Babe, EUI), From research to Exhibition: reflections and future perspectives

11:15 – 11:45 Brief response by Maria Hlavajova and open discussion

11:45 – 12:15 Maria Hlavajova: Critical reflection on the questions of representation in connection to BABE project

12:15 – 12:30 Concluding remarks and reflections

The BABE project is receiving funding from the European Research Council under the European Union's Seventh Framework Programme (FP/2007-2013) / ERC Grant Agreement n. 295854